“ I did not know cathy as well as I would have liked too. I first met her at jim and carol groth's anniversary party last november. I remember how she made me laugh. To me, she was the kind of person that would always make you feel welcome. My thoughts and prayers are with the family. I am so sorry.... Deborah and Paul Bucherri jim groth's sister

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with Thomas and family with the passing of Cathy. Cathy was a one of a kind person, she was unique. Her smile would like up a room and her laughter would lighten any mood. God only calls us home when our job here on earth is done; Cathy has done a wonderful job making people happy where ever she went. We love you Cathy and always will. Your memory has been etched in our hearts forever.
