“Cathy was a loving teacher who cared for the children that she taught. She was a lady always. She also was a great person to plan a party. Every event she planned was great. Cathy was a great lady of faith. Her love of the Lord showed thru all that she did.

“Cathy became a loving member of our family through her rooming with Elaine at Spring Arbor. She always had a warm smile, loving hug, and a laugh that made us laugh with her. We counted her as our "fifth sister." She always wanted to help & participate in family gatherings such as showers & weddings. We all rejoiced with her when she met, loved, and married Jakob. We are thankful for the loving care he gave Cathy during these difficult months of ALS. What a precious gift to her. They both have been a Christian testimony during this ordeal. Our prayers are with Jake, Mrs. Russell, Don, other family members, & her many friends.

“ Cathy and I were roommates for three years at Spring Arbor College (now University). Once we both became teachers, we spent a summer vacation touring along Lake Michigan's coastline, beginning in Mackinaw City. We thought we were "so grown up!" So many memories flood my mind, but the greatest memory I have of Cathy is her solid faith in her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Even while she was suffering from the symptoms of ALS, I asked her if God was ministering to her. She covered her heart with her hand, and with tears in her eyes, she nodded her head affirmatively. The peace she had even during this difficult time was exemplary of the peace and faith she had always shown. She was a precious friend, and I will greatly miss her. Elaine (Munger) Gebhard “ Cousin Cathy was a very kind, and sweet natured person. In many ways she was the big sister that I never had while growing up. We had some hilariously fun vacations together, and always enjoyed spending the holidays with her, aunt Eleanor, and her brother Don. I am heartbroken you have left us, but I'm so glad your suffering is over and that we will meeting again one day.

“ Cathy will remain in our memory as being a sweet, smart, gracious and lovely lady.

May she rejoice with her Dad and other loved ones, as she has joined them with The Lord.
