

Charles Fitzgerald Amsden

December 15, 1937 - February 19, 2025

Charles Fitzgerald Amsden, born in 1937 in Detroit, Michigan to the late Charles and Anne Kathleen Amsden, passed away peacefully, leaving behind a legacy of love, kindness, and dedication. Chuck was the beloved husband of Sheila P. Amsden (nee' Commenator), his devoted wife of 64 years. Together, they shared a life filled with joy, adventure, and cherished memories.

Chuck was a proud father to his daughters, Louise (Chris) LaFaive and Margaret (Kathleen O'Bryan) Amsden, who were the light of his life. He was also a doting grandfather to Charles LaFaive, Dalton Coad and a beloved uncle to many nieces, nephews and grand-nieces and nephews who will always remember his warmth and gentle spirit.

Chuck graduated from St. Joseph High School in 1955, he worked at Michigan Consolidated Gas Company while pursuing his undergraduate degree in education from Wayne State University. He later went on to obtain his master's degree in reading and special education from Oakland University. A dedicated educator, Chuck taught for 27 years at Warren Woods Public Schools, where he inspired countless students with his passion for learning and his unwavering commitment to their success. His influence extended beyond the classroom, as he touched the lives of many colleagues and friends with his wisdom and generosity.

Chuck was an avid fisherman and golfer, spending many peaceful hours by the water or on the green, enjoying the beauty of nature. He was also enjoyed tinkering in his wood shop and was a voracious reader, always eager to explore new ideas and stories. His favorite place on earth was Stag Island, Canada, where he spent all his summers. It was there that he met the love of his life, Sheila, and together they built a haven that would become a cherished retreat for their family and friends.

Known for his friendly demeanor, Chuck was a friend to many. He had a unique ability to make everyone feel valued and heard, leaving a positive impact on all who crossed his path. His legacy of kindness and compassion will live on in the hearts of those who knew and loved him.

Chuck will be deeply missed by his family, friends, and all those whose lives he touched. His memory will forever be a beacon of love, kindness, and unwavering dedication to the people and passions that defined his life. May he rest in peace, surrounded by the love and gratitude of all who were fortunate enough to know him. Visitation on Saturday, March 1, 2025, from 11am-4pm with 4pm Sharing of Memories at the Wm. “ Vince (Chip) Carver, My family had a cottage (1950) as well as my brother Jamie and I on Stag Island later on. My brother and I knew Charlie and his family since we were kids. I also hunted in 1999 and was successful getting a deer on his property in Lapeer. Charlie was a good listener and gave good advice when asked. He was always cheerful and had a great laugh. My brother and I will miss him but we have our good memories. Our condolences to the Amsden family.

Chuck always smiled and had a few words for Dave and I
Chuck will be missed
He was a gentle giant with a great smile

“ Shelia, Margaret, Louise, and Charles,
I remember after Charles was born , that there wasn't a day with out Chuck talking about him, he was truly in love with being a Grandpa and just beam with pride. He talk about his daughters with such pride, in there accomplishments, and he believed they were Daddy girls. His love for Shelia always showed on his face ,she was truly his Valentine. Chuck was our neighbor at Heron Glen, he always was there for us, he was part of Thursday golf group, Norm, Dave, Ebb, and of course Chuck. They were known for using each other club number , laughing out loud, and always being there for each other. He will be missed, thank you being our true friend.

“ Having spent several holidays; im speaking of chrished thanksgivings, with chuck , sheila , the daughters , their partners , children ,relatives , always welcomed . Chuck's reputation as gruff , grumpy , and stubborn seemed a point of pride perhaps , an act maybe . He was always engaging , and he was genuine and caring , he listened with focus . Kind , generous , and comfortable seated before the game . We will miss you chuck , sincerely . True love returned to sheila , i cannot imagine they are apart , and the sorrow much love and condolences .
