“ I don't have very many memories with you Grandpa but I will always remember your smile when me Ian and Alyssa would walk in your door and give you a hug. I sadly came around after you had a stroke and never heard your voice until after you left us, i wish i could have talked to you more. i cant wait to see you in heaven and talk to you about cars and my life with you and give you a big ole hug. I miss you. <3

“ I always thought of Chuck as one of the more interesting people I had ever met. I joined Chrysler Missile Division in Detroit on 6 March 1958 and met Chuck that day or soon thereafter. Our paths ran parallel for the next few years - to Missile Div. activities with the Jupiter IRBM in Huntsville, AL, until the end of 1959, and then to Jupiter missile site installation and activation activities in Italy 1960-61. I lived in Bari and he lived in Taranto. We saw each other rarely and eventually lost track of one another, but I always had good memories of him. Our condolences to his family, Walter and Elizabeth Newgeon

“ I first met Chuck Charles in November 1978 at the DeLorean Factory in Belfast where he was Managing Director. After a little while I realised that he was a truly exceptional man. Highly motivated and personable. Chuck would speak to the highest and the lowest with the same friendly demeanour. My wife and I would later become good friends with Chuck, he attended our wedding in 1983. One of the lasting impressions he had on me is that in adversity he thrived and always lead from the front giving inspiration to those of us with less experience. I lost contact with him in the late 1980's and was very saddened to hear the sad news from Erich Our condolences to the Bennington family circle our thoughts are with you.
