“ My Uncle Chuck means more to me than anyone will ever know. When I moved in across the street, in Grandma's old house, he used to come over when I was working on all of my old Airstreams. He would shoot the breeze with me for hours on end. Aunt Margaret would have to call out the front door to get him to come back home. He was an uncle, a surrogate dad and a good friend. My life would have been far different without the love and respect my uncle gave me. He treated me as if I was his own son. When my dad passed away he was always there for me. I spent many a day with him and my cousins. All three of them are like brothers to me. From hunting, ice fishing and going up north. We were all a band of brothers. The times I shared with all of them were due only to my Uncle Chuck. He made it all happen. I love him and miss him so much. I will see you on the other side, Uncle Chuck.
