“ I used to look forward to seeing you, A smile spread across your face. You were my Papa, and i was your "happyface". You knew I loved you, and I the same. You were always there when needed, And you never just walked away. Now that your gone, I feel as though i've lost my best friend. My confidant has left me, but i know that i will see you once again in the end. papa, i miss you soo dearly, and i know that one day, we will meet in heaven again. i'm looking forward to that day. because i know that you and i being separated is only temporary, and noone can take the memories from me, no matter how hard they try.

“ Dad, Well you know my Beer buddy is gone but your spirit and Memories will always be with me in my Heart. You and Mom always treated me like a Son and I will always remember that and Love you for it. You both have always been there for me no matter what happened. I will miss seeing you sitting on the couch when I come into your Home but I know that your spirit is there and I will Charish that Forever. I Love You Both Mike “ Dad you and your tools, how you loved to collect them! I remember you calling me when I had the black explorer, you wnted this air compressor at Sears, and Mom didn't! You had me come and pick you up, and we where in a hurry to pick it up and get back before Mom got home! Well, at least we got it in the garage! Mom busted us!! I will never forget the look we had at eachother when she pulled up! I LOVE YOU DAD!!!

“ Dandelion wishes, butterfly kisses, sneaking me candy from your briefcase. Crawling up into your lap and cuddling to take a nap, knowing you would carry me off and tuck me in. Saying my lay me down to sleeps and small kisses on the cheek, I will always have these precious memories. Dad your eyes with the sentimental stare never changed the way they looked at me over time, with your unconditional love that was a gift to you from above is a blanket of comfort and peace now to me. Now that God holds you close, I miss your eyes the most, then I remember who dons my face. Dad your eyes I see them when I look in the mirror, your smile reflects back at me, now that I see, you will always be with me, not just in heart, but in appearance in part because God blessed me with your likeness Dad, my face. To you Dad with all my love and gratitude, Marnie

“ Papa. I will miss you so much. You always had a hug waiting for me, and always a kind word to share when i needed one the most. I will miss you very much, and i'll never forget the many times that we shred together. They were very precious to me. I will always carry you in my heart. you were always such a loving, and caring man. You always knew the right thing to say when I was upset. I will miss you so much.

“ Uncle Chuck, Although our family was at one end of the country and yours at the other, we somehow managed to spend a few great times together. Sharing precious simple moments that I will remember forever. Your first visit to the Kapoc Tree Resturant in Davie, Fl. and you falling in lust over their featured drink. The kids, playing a whipped cream prank on you as you lay sound asleep on the our family room floor. And, during our last visit, our gathering for Oktoberfest at the Rathskeller for one of the most enjoyable evenings we have ever had. I will cherish those moments and others. I will rememeber a great human being. I will never forget my friend.
