

Charles Poehlman

October 10, 1923 - December 30, 2007

Charles Poehlman, 84, a lifelong resident of Royal Oak, died Sunday, Dec. 30, 2007 at home. He was born on Dec. 10, 1923 in Detroit. Mr. Poehlman was a World War II U.S. Navy veteran and served in the Korean conflict. He will be missed by family and friends. He is survived by his wife, Betty Poehlman, whom he wed on Jan. 28, 1946 in Ferndale; children, Danny Marti Poehlman of Louisville, KY and Nancy James Cook of Shelbyville, KY; three grandchildren and two great grandchildren. Mr. Poehlman was predeceased by a son, James Charles Poehlman.

Tribute Wall

MH

“ To Aunt Betty, Cousins Danny and Nancy, Grandchildren and Family: It is with a lot of sadness and a heavy heart, that I was notified of Uncle Chuck's passing on December 30. All of the memories of the family get-togethers at Thanksgiving and Christmas and all the other times came back. Who can forget all those wonderful memories? I know I didn't. I also have not forgotten how much Uncle Chuck worked to give all he could to help make a good life for his family. I know how proud he was of that too. And his service to his country in the U.S. Navy. I remember some of the things he told me about life in the Navy during WW2, quite interesting for sure. And other things in life as well. God has a place for him in Heaven and may a favorite uncle rest in Eternal Peace, he certainly has earned it and deserves nothing less. Our Sincerest Sympathy Mark, Michael, Jason, Mindy, Sea and Jeffrey

Mark Henning - March 25, 2015 at 12:00 AM