“ I not sure how old I was I think the twins were born. But one Halloween my dad made a jack o lantern pumpkin that fit over his head. He took some candy and little toys and went to Mt Clemens General and handed kids candy or toys wearing that pumpkin. He told the story and spoke of a little girl who said she was burnt and ugly. My dad said that he was uglier that's why he had to wear the pumpkin.

“ He was the life of the party.
He was more than humble.
He loved children, duh obviously!
He was a leader.
He was not arrogant.
He would give you the shirt off his back.
He could build anything, a garage, a house, even a canoe!
He did not brag.
He made you feel important.
He said the right things even when he teased you.
He married a woman with the same values.
He instilled his qualities in his children and grandchildren.
He will live forever through them.

Thank you God, Aunt Mary and cousins for sharing him.

“ Its tough to explain the effect he has had on my life in a short paragraph, but i will try. Meeting him 22 years ago it didn't take me long to realize how significant he was to so many people. He always treated me like one of his own and i will never forget that. When it is all said and done there are so many great qualities he carried with him every day of his life, but the one that stands out to me the most was his ability to love, and how true it was. A lot of people struggle to find there way, but if you had the honors of knowing this great man then you were blessed with the blueprint he left behind for all of us to follow.

FATHER! You have always been there for me, always supported me, and you gave me the love and guidance that i needed so much. You will always be in my heart and memories. So please rest in peace, you deserve it.

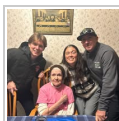

thank you for showing me what truly matters in life! your SON Craig.

As I mentioned to you. Wow Craig, this is brilliant. Amazing how something flows when it comes from the heart.

Mike verbeke - February 24, 2018 at 02:04 AM

Wow Craig... I have read this about 3 times now and every time I read it just gets more beautiful. He loved you so much and you 2 shared an amazing bond. I always said that my dad and I got closer because of you. I love you babe!!

“ What a wonderful opportunity to write about my Brother Bud. when he came home from his service in Germany, he brought his uniform of course,

I was around age 7 or 8 (don't quote exactness of that) but that era, I was still a "kid", still playing "Army" with a next door neighbor "kid". that next door neighbor was a male kid... we were discussing, Who would be the captain.

Well My Brother Bud, walked over and was listening to us do this Army dialog ... Bud was taking it in with this serious "look" but light-hearted Solution He went back in the house for a minute and carried out His "Army HAT" and put it squarely on MY head

*I guess you can tell who became the "Captain".... So my Brother ~ my Hero ... he could solve this most serious dilemma <3 LOVE this Wonderful Man ! * **

“ I've been thinking of all my child hood memories with this man, and there are so many, too many to pick one to share. I haven't seen him in too many years, life seems to fly by and we always think there will be a tomorrow, to do what we should do then, I am sorry I missed so many years with my uncle, but nothing will ever take away my childhood memories with this wonderful, one of a kind man. Will cherish you forever Uncle Bud.

“ I never had the honor of meeting or knowing Mr. Charles Verbeke Jr. But through my encounters with his son Jason Verbeke i get the impression that he was a great man as well as a great father. I pray that God will send down a mighty band of angels to minister to all of you, and that God will fill the void in your hearts as you go forward with love, comfort, and strength. On behalf of the East Spencer Fire Department and Providence Baptist Church, we send our love, prayers and deepest sympathy.
