“ Words can't explain how I have been so fortunate to be a part of Charline's life. I will never forget the day I married her brother Robert when Cha came up to me with a big hug and how happy she was that I was going to be a part of the LaCroix family. Her loving smiles at all of the family gatherings will never be forgotten. My prayers go out to all of her children that she loved the most during her days on earth as she watched them grow from the crib to adult hood.

Thank you for your thoughts Aunt Mary. My Mom and I came to know and understand each other well the last few years. I'll miss our time together.

“ I'll always remember Aunt Cha as beautiful inside and out and her wonderful laughter. As my dads youngest sister, she had his gorgeous LaCroix blue eyes and always called him Robar in a very lite French accent. A very classy lady.
