“ Dear Lynn, Sandy, Richard and Mike and Kelly: So sad to lose one of the most dearest friends I know. She was one in a million. She will be in my heart forever. I worked with her for several years at Beaumont. The minute I met her I knew she was a gem. She was such a good nurse and was so kind and loving to her patients. She loved her work and her coworkers. She always wanted to help and to listen if you had a problem or concern. Char always had a smile and laugh. She had many stories and loved to share news about her family and especially her grandchildren. She was so great to her sweet mom too. The two of them together were quite a team. She helped me so much and I knew she was always there if I needed a favor. I feel so bad I missed having lunch with her in October. I will miss her phone calls to check in on me. I know there is a special place in heaven for such a grand lady. Love and hugs to you all. I know you will miss this wonderful mother of yours. Annie Beaver

“ I am deeply sorry for your loss. My heart goes out to your family. What helps me in these difficult times are the words of Isaiah 25:8 Where it says death will be swallowed up forever. We all look forward to that time. Sincerely Jim

“ So many sweet memories over all these years, which one to share? The first time I met Charlotte was the same night I met my soon to be husband, Jack. Charlotte's brother and he called her Charlie. She told me once that she thought he was beautiful and I know he loved her. They both loved all their siblings deeply. It was an impromptu evening with friends and there was six of us. We went to a "twist place," a bar that one of the guys knew about. It served food, drinks, and there was dancing. It was funny when we tried to do the twist. We were really having a good time when Jack decided to make an interesting(?) comment to me. I, of course responded, telling him where he could go. Charlotte nearly fell off of her chair and I will always remember the look on her face. It was priceless. How could I speak that way to her brother? But, she did forgive me and we were friends right away. By the end of the evening I knew I was in love and would soon have a good husband and a great sister. She and her sisters have had my back ever since and have given me their love, support and understanding through all the bad things and the good things too, that happen in a lifetime. I will miss sitting at her kitchen table and drinking coffee with her and especially our conversations. She will always be in my heart.

“ My beautiful Aunt tried to teach me to make cookies, and shared her love of Dick Francis novels with me. We read them all! She'd eat a year's supply of apple butter in a week. Above all, she was part of a trio of amazing, strong, generous and loving women who were always there at my side, even when I didn't know I needed them. I love you Aunt Charlotte. Thank you for being such an example of spunk and strength.
