“ I used to work with Char at Oakland General Hospital. I'll never forget her, she always lived to the fullest. I remember one time in particular when I would do a "comb out" on her hair in the bathroom before her shift started. Charlotte was always a little outrageous but she had a heart of gold and would do anything within her power to help a friend. Even though I now live in Texas, we would still talk on the phone. I will miss her greatly.

“ Char, you were my "Michigan mom". Everytime I was around, you treated me like one of your own. I'll miss you.
