Ita been over a year now since you left us. I still can't belive your gone. Me and the boys miss you so much. They are getting so big so fast. Cameron is back into his wrestling and me and Logan have started bowling. He takes after me with with that, you would be so proud of both of them. The days and nights are not the same without you. I think of you everyday and I'm sure the boys do too. There are are days I just want to come home and sit with you and tell you about everything you have missed since you have gone. I hope you hear me when I talk to you. There is so much I want to tell you. You were my best friend and the love of my life. I know we will meet again and I will get to hold you, hug you and never ever let you go. I do belive your watching over us everyday and I can see your amazing smile watching the boys grow. Our time together was short but I can close my eyes and relive even moment we had together. Life is not the same without you and never will be. I love you more than the first day we met. I know you are in a better place, but the ace I am in is so empty with out you. I will never stop loving you with all my heart. Until we meet again my love

“ My love. It been over a year and I miss you more every day. The boys are growing like weeds and becoming little men. You would be so proud of them. They are such good boys and they talk about you alot. We have been doing the best we can without you, but it's hard. We know you don't want to see us sad or unhappy but life without you is not the same. The days seem like they fly bye without you here. We all would love to have time with you again. Just to sit and talk and hug you. I so miss you being by my side. I never thought I would be without you and it's HARDER than I have ever imagined. We send our love to you and everyone in our families that you are with now. Much love and kisses my love ... Until we meet again.

“ My love. I can't tell you how heavy my heart has been the last six months without you. Me and the boys miss you so much I can't even begin to explain it. Cameron is now a high schooler and Logan is a big middle schooler. Things will never be the same without you I hope you are looking down and smiling with your beautiful smile with every mile stone that passes. The days seem to just pass like minutes without having you and the support that you always gave us. I would give anything to hold you one more time. I didn't think I could miss anyone so much, but I do!! I still love you more as much as I did the day we said I do and always will!! I hope you are with your dad and Tony smiling down on us and giving us some sort of guidance through this. I miss you and love you forever and always. Until we meet again my love .
