“ I knew Christen from American Medial Response AMR. We worked the road together several times at AMR. We talked about going fishing together, but never got the chance. I was not aware of her passing until a month ater it happened, it's a terrible loss to all. She had a lot to offer. I hope and suspect she is in a better place and happy.

“ June and George, Our love and prayers to you and your family during your time of sorrow. Living away for so many years only gave us a glimpse of Christen but, what we did know was that she was a wonderful, fun and lovely person... thanks to you her parents, and family. All our love to you... John, Jeanette, Patrick & Matthew
