“ Dear Chris, You were always so happy, kind and thoughtful. You brightened our home with your visits and always had a positive look on life and people. David and I will miss spending time with Dona, Natalie, and you. We were looking forward to another Super Bowl party like last years. We know that God has a special place in Heaven for you. You will be missed so much and always be in our thoughts and prayers. Love, Anabelle and David Orlowsky

“ The Holiday season is a unique and special time enjoy the company of loved ones who are with us and reflect with appreciation on those who have departed. Chris Hill was a true friend, an incredibly generous and considerate person, and model husband and father. In these hectic and sometimes difficult times, many become absorbed and depressed by their own affairs. Chris was a man who had the personal strength and character to rise above the fray and deliver kindness and reassurance to all who knew him. He was a hard-working, concienccous man who always made sure he gave to others more than he took. What makes his passing so unfortunate is not merely his young age and the beautiful wife and daughter he leaves behind, but his tremendous love of and enthusiasm for life. I wish I could have taken you up on all the gestures of friendship and invitations to do things you extended to me Chris; you were such a delightful person and good friend. My life has been greatly enhanced by knowing you and I will always be grateful for your friendship. You will never be forgotten my dear friend. Thanks for the memories and may God speed you to Heaven. Love, David Orlowsky

“ I wish I would have known you more. Its unfortunate that you left earth so soon. Base on Dave Orlofsky, that you are a generous individual. I called you once a few weeks ago. I understand that you are a busy individual dividing your life as a father and husband. Well, its unfortunate that good person leave the earth sooner that the person who are more evil who lives longer because God don't want them in heaven sooner than they should. After a few months passes by, I'm going to communicate with Jack your best friend of maybe trying to continue your lawnscape business and snowplowing service in your behalf. That way your wife Dona will have some steady income to support your daughter. Hopefully, Me and Jack can get along being a business partner. If Jack and You get along. More than likely, I can get along with him. I've known Dave Orlofsky for about 5yrs ago. We first meet at Autozone in Warren Rd in Dearborn. When we first meet, Dave was telling me that he has a Filipina Wife from Davao. From then, we become friend even though we don't work together anymore. There's a saying a Friend in Need is a Friend in Deed. Which means your true friend will be there no matter how much you have. Real Friend will be there if you need an ear for you.

“ My thoughts and prayers go out to the Hill family as you go through this most difficult of times. I will always remember the day I was lucky enough to be a passenger in his "hot rod" with my brother Brian and Pete - cruising Woodward and the streets of Berkley. I'll remember him well as he was always friendly towards me like the rest of the Hill family has been. May Chris Rest in Peace.
