“ Dear Kathy, A long time ago, when the world was simpler and kinder although we probably didn't appreciate it at the time, you and I worked together at Big Beaver and Crooks. During that time, I had the pleasure and the privilege of meeting Chris a few times at company gatherings, and I remember him as a smiling, congenial man with a mustache that rivaled mine. That was many years ago, but I will always remember Chris that way---and I will always remember both of you fondly, Please accept my warmest and most sincere condolences, Kathy. If I can ever be of service---even if it's only to recall some of the fun we had---please don't hesitate to contact me. Andy Ladak

“ My deepest sympathy to Kate. Chris was a business client of mine but more than that I considered him a friend. We had a great relationship and I always enjoyed the time we spent together. He was a true gentleman and will be sorely missed.
