“ First, Jerry and I are so very sad for you Jean and Concetta. I will let him share his memory separately, because he probably has a great story. One of my favorite memories of Chris was at Boulan Park at a Thornetta Davis concert with with Cetty, Christine, and Debbie. It poured rain. We were soaked, but we kept dancing in the rain. Fun night! Also the Rent Party, and the Athens Jazz Band fundraiser. You were such a strong woman, as sick as you were and working full time. I'm going to miss you my dear friend and SIL. I love you, and I hope you are at peace. ❤️

That was a great memory! I have many memories of Chris as well. She always had me laughing and the world is a bit dimmer without her here.

My name is Maggie. Chris was one of my late mother Nancy's best friends. I found some lovely pictures of Nancy, Chris and Concetta from their trip to a bakery in 1994. I wanted to send them to Chris but then I found my way here. I know now that Chris and my mom are making each other laugh in the beyond. What a beautiful thing to have, such a friendship over the years. Nancy adored Chris and I hope that she will always be remembered as a woman who really was filled to the brim with joy and gave my mom a chronic case of the giggles. - Love from the Andersons from Duluth.

Hi Maggie. I stumbled upon this beautiful memory today. I hope you are well. I tried to call the number for Lon, with no success after Chris passed away in April 2024. I have a photo of the visit up to Duluth. What a fantastic memory. If you want to call me, I would love to hear from you. I miss Chris everyday. Thank you for sharing the memory. So Grateful. 586-623-0054

“ Christine was a very interesting and lively person. She loved her family and friends and loved good times. She chose to live her life to the fullest as long as she was able. She was very kind to me during a difficult period and I think of her with fondness. My heartfelt condolences to the family and friends, especially her sisters Concetta and Jeanne and other extended family and friends who loved her so much and tried to help every way they could.
