“ So sorry to hear of Xina's passing. We worked together in the late 90s at Comerica and I adored her. She was very competent, easy to talk to, and always was patient with me as a youngster coming up in the industry. Such a wonderful, terrific human being and professional. My deepest sympathies to the family.

“ David, Andy, Sarah--Thank you, Andrew, for letting Amy know of Xina's passing. It is so hard to imagine her with the ancestors, instead of with us all here. Her passion and commitment to other people, and to the organizations and institutions she believed in, was so visible, and a great example for the rest of us. Her sly humor and laugh, her open heart, her exacting mind. All of that are some of the memories that we share of our beloved Xina. Please know that Amy and I are holding you all in our hearts.

“ Xina was not only Andy's mom, and Nicole's 2nd mom, and Eliza's grandma. She was a dear dear friend to us. I will always love and miss her. She called us family. We cherish that. May peace be with all. Fly high Xina. ❤️

Xina always lived life with gusto and delight. She loved a good party and didn't miss many chances to visit with friends. She loved her family as much as anyone could, and often spoke highly of her family and David's. Xina took the time to know people well, and would often cry tears of sympathy and concern along side them. She will live as a dear sweet memory in my mind always.
