“ Matt and I loved meeting and developing a friendship with Chris through the Ferndale FMC. I remember what a great team Marcia and Chris made together. They loved and served those around them well, including our family! I remember them leaving a lovely bag full of presents embroidered with our son's name on our doorstep during his NICU stay. Every thoughtful gift we opened from that bag poured out love on our tires and stressed hearts. I'm looking forward in hope to that day when I see Chris again, worship Our Father alongside him, this time with our heaven bodies that will never weaken and tire again!

“ I graduated with Chris. He was always kind and smiling! I ran into him when he first start working Radiology. Sending love and prayers to his family as you send your angel home.

“ Such a friendly man. He made all of those he barely knew feel like they've known him forever. I rarely saw him without a smile. He was passionate about American History, Traveling, Sports, Christian Rock Music, his friends & family and last but not least...his faith in Jesus Christ. He even started up a Bible study one year, out of his concern that his friends at work may not understand the true love & mercy of God. I am proud to have had his influence on my life. I'm also glad to have shared so many laughs with him at work in Radiation Oncology. I'll miss him...until we meet again & he gives me the grand tour of The Lords House.

“ Chris had a passion for cooking and even though he and his family were several states away from me, we engaged in comparison cooking across the miles as photos were often sent of our latest "project" and as we compared notes and tips. His "signature burgers" were amazing. As important as his cooking was to him, his faith was even stronger, as was his love of his family. Rest easy and in the arms of the angels my friend, until we meet again.

“ Husband, father, son, brother. A true family man. I will miss our conversations about all the local sports teams and take solace that "there is no crying in baseball" as I shall miss you my friend.
