“ To the Craft family, We worked with Cindy and she was a wonderful, kind and fun co-worker. She will be sincerely missed by everyone at T.I.M. She amazed us with the way she always knew where everything was. She was such a hard worker and she was always willing to help anyone.

“ To the children and granddaughter of Cindy, I knew your mom for over 15 years and can easily say she had more wit and humor in one little finger than any comedian out there today. I will miss playing trivia with her at the office and much, much more. She was a gem and heaven will be even more glorious with her there.

“ I didn't know Cindy well, just to say hi as she went upstairs with her arms full of groceries or flowers. She always seemed energetic and upbeat. I was happy to have someone living above me again. I'll miss that. My sympathies to all of you in your loss. Liz in 102
