

Cindy Randall

October 22, 1957 - August 11, 2024

Cindy Randall, age 66, of Shelby Township, Michigan, passed away on Sunday, August 11, 2024, in Clinton Township. Born on October 22, 1957, in Mount Clemens, Michigan, she was the beloved daughter of the late Richard and Lorraine Slasky.

Cindy dedicated over 36 years of her life to the Chippewa Valley Schools, serving as a bus driver with unwavering commitment and care. She retired in 2020, leaving behind a legacy of safety, kindness, and countless smiles from the students she transported over the years.

Family was at the heart of Cindy's life. She cherished every moment spent with her loved ones, especially her grandchildren, Emerson and Lilah, who brought immense joy to her life. She was a devoted mother to her sons, Jason (Nicolette) Myrick and Kevin Myrick, and her love extended to her grandpup, Macy.

Cindy is also survived by her dear Uncle Patrick Soja, who, along with the rest of her family and friends, will deeply miss her kind heart and generous spirit. Cindy was preceded in death by her aunt, Mary Soja.

“ Transporting students to school safely on a school bus is one of the most important jobs in a school district. It is very impressive to know that Cindy did this in Chippewa Valley Schools for 36 years: that is more than half her life. Cindy made a difference in the lives of so many. She cared for her students and showed it with a smile on her face. We were fortunate to benefit from her service for so many years. ”
