“ Claude was my daughter Tara's father-in-law and I am Henry's. Our family was having dinner at our home several months before their wedding and plans were being made. Henry suggested the possibility that Claude could catch and supply enough Walleye fillets to feed the whole wedding of about 250 guests. We called Claude and he immediately said no problem!! He arrived with several ice containers full of fillets. It was a big hit.

Our family will remember Claude as a kind, thoughtful loving devoted husband, father and grandfather. He was deeply loved by all. Our deepest love and condolences to the family. Shirley and Stan.
