“ We ALL will complete the circle of life regardless of how sad and brokenhearted we leave our loved ones behind. Be assured Greg your mom is happy, she found her way back to your dad and her lonely days are over. Rest in peace dear sister. The picture is great, the love was strong, now dear nephew gather strength to carry on.

“ Claudia and I would get together once in a while meeting for lunch or dinner. She was always talking about Jim or Greg, she loved them so much. She also wanted to get closer to her family. We talked about our present families. She loved my mom, her aunt Julia. She would relate stories about how when she was a child my mother, who was living with them at that time, would place all of the kids on the counters and scrub the floor without little feet running around her. We would laugh at the comical picture of that in our heads. I really loved Claudia she always looked for me at any function that we went together. She made sure I was introduced and comfortable. She was a great caretaker. She was priceless. I am going to truly miss her.

“ I met Claudia several years ago after our husbands passed. Claudia and I enjoyed shopping and going to a movie or just getting out. One year we went to New York on the train...a very memorable trip. She was a great lady. My deepest sympathies to the family.

“ My sister loved to travel the world and was always looking toward her next adventure and project. A few weeks ago she was enthusiastically describing a home she was interested in buying in The Villages. She will be deeply missed.
