“ Hail and Farewell, Old Friend. We go back a long way, Colleen. Your mother, Mae McLaughlin, and mine, Aileen McGlynn, were best of friends in Corktown and at St. Leo High School, class of 1920. You and I have kept in touch though Metropolitan Detroit's Irish community, the Ancient Order of Hibernians, and Friendly Sons of St. Patrick. Lots of photos and toasts at the Friendly Sons when you were Grand Marshall of the St. Patrick's Day parade. Learning that our daughter Mary was in the Maid of Erin competition over twenty years ago, you went backstage to meet her. A fond memory!
Ave Atque Vale, God's blessings, Colleen.

So very sorry my old friend has passed on!! She was quite a women getting involved in many Irish organization - and then some!!! I so enjoyed all the many adventures we attended. She really supported my singing at various venues. She will be sorely missed by all the people who's life she touched. God speed to the Heavenly Gates....Maureen Harte
