“ We were next-door neighbors for twelve years. I am so terribly sorry for your family's loss. Colleen was always a welcoming and friendly neighbor, and we had many visits in lawn chairs in the front drive. Our kids grew up side by side. I'll always remember Colleen's bright smile and that she always had time for a nice chat. May God give you strength and comfort.

“ Heartfelt sympathies to the family. We were "neighbors" and friend for several years. I was saddened to hear the news and pray God gives you all the strength, comfort and peace during this difficult time.

“ Our prayers and thoughts are with you! Dave and I remember Colleen and Craig when they were in Adventures in Marriage. I will always remember Colleen's smile, welcoming personality and her love for her children! Anthony, Dalaney, and Kelly, your mother adored you! Cherish all of those great times and vacations those memories will be what will get you through this hard time along with God's grace. You are so young to have to be losing your mother!
