“ I met Connie in 1991 when we both were hired into Head Start. She was such a good, caring family person. She left Head Start but stayed friends with us. We had many lunches and dinners together through the years. It was hard saying goodbye today but she is at peace and out of pain. Miss you my friend.

“ When we were young I knew Connie from growing up on Milverton she always hung out with all of us from playing baseball, football. She kept up with all the boys even ran faster than some of us. She was the ture meaning of a Tomboy. Which is probley why when I think of her she reminded me of Doris Day in the movie Calamity Janqe because she was rough and tough as the rest of the boys but with smile that warmed your heart. I have seen recent photos of her and I can tell that the Tomboy personality stay with her throughout life warming everyones heart she met. She will be missed. Paul Hemme.
