“ I would like to remember Corinne for her outgoing personality, sense of humor & her loyalty as a friend. Growing up as neighbors we were inseparable & had so much fun. I remember when Mark came into her life. It was true love and I was honored to be her maid of honor. Marriage, distance & kids changed how often we might talk or spend time together. We grew older & could go periods of time without talking but pick up like no time had left us. I loved her like a sister. She gave me strength during some difficult moments in my life. I have been blessed to have had her be a big part of my life. I hold the memories close to my heart. Keeping her family in my thoughts & prayers during this extremely difficult times. Rest In Peace my beautiful friend.
