“ To the family of Corrinne Perez : Please accept my sincere sympathy for the loss of your loved one. While we don't know one another, experiencing the devastation of losing a loved one is something we all face in our lives. The Bible promises a time when "death will be no more" (Rev 21:3.4) and assures us that God hears our prayers (Ps 55:22). I hope this brings you some peace during this difficult time.

“ Living so far away I didn't really have a chance to know her very well. She had to be a wonderful woman, because I know her daughter Annie who is so sweet and lovable.
I now she is in very good hands with all those that have gone before her.
I printed all the information for our family book. Love and Prayers.

“ Dear Ann, Thinking of you and your family today. It's hard to find the right thing to say at a time like this so if I say it wrong, I apologize. Losing a parent is the hardest thing and I just can't imagine losing my mother. I am so sorry you are going through this but remember that her legacy is simply amazing because it includes you, and your children and your grandchild.

You were an amazing care taker and tireless advocater. If we all had only half of your strength and determination the world would be a much better place.

Kenny and I are sorry we can't be there but we hope you find some comfort in knowing that she is at peace. All our love, Shelley & Kenny Book
