“ It's been one year ago today since you left us. I still can't believe you are gone. We are still fighting for you with the health care nurse who neglected you. I know you and momma are taking care of each other. Please take care of Kellie and the boys as they go through this difficult time. There isn't a day that I don't go to the cemetery to see you and momma. You'll never know how much you are missed. Love and miss you.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I went to school with Curt @ Tower. We had reconnected on Myspace and had been going through 'ole times and reminiscing our youth. That was when Curt's hair was SHORT!! He always had a smile and a little chuckle when someone would get into trouble. His eyes twinkled and his personality just lite up a room when he came in. Those are the things I remember about him and I will cherish. Happy and pain-free in Heaven with your Mom, he is forever smiling down on you and watching over the kids. Know that you are in my thoughts and prayers at this time and always. God bless..

“ Dear Uncle Curt, i waited off on writing this because i was unsure of what to say, but here it goes. i have been thinking about you since i first found out you were in the hospital for the second and time and i was thinking mostly about the times when we would talk about sports, when we would talk about computer sights that we knew that every one else in the room didn't, and mostly about the times when we would have Christmas over at your house. I charish these memories above all because i spent them with you and only you, these were what we loved to do together and i know we can't do them physically together, but i do know that anytime i argue for the lions your there, anytime i find a new website your there, and anytime i smell christmas dinner you will be there. I can't say goodbye because i know your not gone, i know i just can't see you. So i say i hope to see you again. Love you always Stephen

“ Dear Kellie, Hank, Sue & Karen, Below are some of the email comments I got that I share with you:

~~~~~
That's very sad, sorry to hear this. And hope you are okay. I remember you speaking often and know he was a very good friend. Hold on to the great memories and let me know if you need anything... Love you! Eric my son - his birthday is Jan. 4th, too

~~~~~
This is truly sad news. I know Curt's health wasn't the greatest but it's still a shock for his age. He'll be greatly missed. I signed the guestbook. Tom Allen Racer

~~~~~
I am saddened to here that Curt passed. I liked him and his spirit, although there were times I wanted to shake his neck and tell him to take care of himself better. My life was better having met him. Bill Merlin

“ Kellie, Ed, Karen, Susie, We will never forget Curtis and all the fun at Frankenmuth with the Hubcaps and watching Kellie grow up. In fact it was Curtis that got us to attend the first time years ago. He will be missed but will live on in our hearts. Surely he is dancing and watching over us. Curt thanks for the memories. “ My Dearest Curt, I'm going to miss you man. Thanks for all the memories... I'll treasure them forever...I know we go way back and there are things you've had to endure in life, which I could never imagine. I think back at our first days at Chrysler... you were a tough guy back then and you were a tough guy to the bitter end. And what was great about you is that you had a heart of GOLD!!!! We all know how much you loved your music especially the Oldies... The song I can't get out of my head and will always have special meaning to me is "Only the Good Die Young"... To the Labiak family we extend our condolences. Love Always, Tony and Sharon Gagliardi

“ Dear Uncle Eddie, Karen and Susie, I am so sorry to hear about your loss. I sit here thinking about all the weekend card games our parents had while we were kids, and we too had so much fun! This is such a shock to me, I didn't know he was ill. Please know that you are all in my thoughts and prayers. Wish I could be there for the service but it is not possible as you know I live in Florida. Again, I am truly sorry and I hope you all will be ok, I do know if you keep remembering all the good memories, and it sounds like ya'll have so many, this will help with the grieving. God bless you all. love, cousin Geraldine

“ Uncle Curt I dont know what any of us are going to do with out you. Their are so many things I could write about but the one that comes to mind is when you and Kellie bowled in that adult youth league at Banaza lanes and I had to sub for her. I have never had so much fun bowling with you. You always told me that you were going to beat me and you never did. I always enjoyed the dinners you made even though they took forever to make. But you have to make everything perfect like grandma. I hope you and grandma found each other up their and are having fun together. I love you so much and you will be missed alot. Love Kimberly

“ Curtis, I do not know where to begin since I never thought I would have to write this. There are so many memories I could write about especially your Christmas dinner which we always knew would be late because you were such a perfectionist when it came to cooking and baking. I can admit now you were the better cook. Words cannot express how I felt when I had my surgery in 2006 and you asked all your friends to pray for me. I never told you how much I appreciated your thoughtfulness and prayers for me. I am glad I was able to tell you I loved you everytime I left the hospital. Unfortunately, we never said it enough. You'll never realize how much you will be missed by your family and friends. You were a great son, brother, father, grandfather, uncle and friend to everyone. I promise I will take care of Kellie, Nathan and Jacob for you. I will make sure that Nathan and Jacob know what a fantastic grandfather you were. I know you will be alright because you are now with mama and will take care of each other. You will probably be visiting the bingos and casinos in heaven together and listening to the Hubcaps "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes". They say time will heal all pain but I do not think I will every get over what you went though. Remember that we love you and will miss you forever. Know that you are now in a better place and not in pain. Until I see you and mama in heaven Love you always and forever, Susie

“ Sue/Karen/Kim, In talking with all of you about Curt, I felt I got to know him through all of you. I know he was a wonderful brother, father, uncle, and grandfather. I am so sorry for your loss, my thoughts and prayers are with you always. Over the years all of you have become my family as well. Sue, you and I have talked a lot about a lot of things and just know that if you need someone you can always call or email me.

“ Over the last couple of weeks, I had a lot of time reflecting on the past—your platform shoes from the prom, when Kellie was born, your 1st deer and all of the Christmas Eves at your house. With enough food for a banquet. Every cookie shaped exactly like the other and your homemade kielbasa perfectly seasoned. All your NEW recipes tried out on Daddy. The best was your Shrimp Scampi. Your discussions with Stephen regarding Michigan/Michigan State were hilarious. But what I remember most is how much you loved Kellie and the boys. She wasn't only your daughter she was your best friend. All the festivals, WCXS concerts, Frankenmuth and the hockey games. Nathan always wanting to play WI with you to beat you. Jacob will never get to have those moments with you. We will tell him often what a great PAPA you were. Please know that we all love you very much. Like Stephen told me the other day, "Mom, Uncle Curt is with Grandma now and he's walking again." Please watch over all of us, and prepare a great Polish feast with Mama. With all my love
