“ Cindy was a valued member of our morning quilt chat room. She was the voice of reason. We dubbed her 'helium arm' because she was always volunteering for something. She spoke often of her sons and her grandchildren who she loved dearly. We shared in her excitement when she was blessed with girl grandchildren and she was finally able to use pink in her quilts. God bless Cindy!

“ Cindy, I will miss you so much. What a happy soul.....I always loved discussions with you. You sent me fabric, I sent you fabric. I remember once you sent me 4-o-clock seeds. Such a ray of sunshine in Quilt Chat. Even tho I never met you in person, I felt we were friends. Quilting made us instatnt friends. Bless your family, I know they have lost a real jewel!

“ I am so sorry for your loss. As the days and weeks pass, and you return to life's routine, may you be comforted by our ...God and Father of our Lord... the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort those in any sort of tribulation through the comfort with which we ourselves are being comforted by God". 2 Cor. 1: 3, 4. Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Please also find comfort in the following: John 11:11 where Jesus said, "...Lazarus our friend has gone to rest, but I am journeying there to awaken him from the sleep." Our Heavenly Father holds out the hope of the resurrection and the ability to see our loved ones again.

“ My heart goes out to the entire Cass family. Cindy was a wonderful lady. My heart is heavy with the loss of one of our core group mothers. The beautiful quilts Cindy made for each one of my children are one of their most cherished possessions. Bob, Lindsey, Brian, Carly, Bill, and Maria, I love you all and my prayers for peace and comfort are lifted towards Heaven for you all. Rachael Wills Bruno
