“ Cindy was always the quiet one, but she was tough having all those siblings. I remember being at Aunt Chris and Uncle Jimmy's house, waiting for them to bring her home from the hospital when she was born. We were so excited to have a new baby added to the family! I remember all the sleepovers, the parties, we always had so much fun when we were all together. Rachel, Christina, Omy and Enrique, I'm so sorry you have to go through this, but know that you have a lot of angels watching over you. Cathy, Tina, Jim, Carrie and John, I'm so sorry you also have to go through the loss of a sibling. I wish we could be there to help you all through this, but we will be there in spirit. We love you all so much! Rest easy Cindy, you've earned it. I love you

“ Cyndi was sweet, soft-spoken, and funny. Surprisingly, she would, "Tell it, like it is" out of the blue. She didn't hold back what was on her mind. May The Good Lord rest her soul into his ETERNAL PEACE!

As her youngest sister I always looked up to her but man she thought I was so annoying. I would steal her clothes and shoes and that would drive her crazy but as adults we had so much fun together. I know I have many other siblings but she was may favorite to annoy. She was so beautiful. My mom used to say "She was my most beautiful child". That smile, those eyes. I will forever love you sister. May you walk beside your children always.

My heart is broken over the loss of Cindy! I was there when you were born and for all of the years since. I have so very many memories of you as a child - when you ran through the glass next to your front door and came up the street with glass in your head. Barry and I vacuumed it out! I came to Michigan and was your stand in mom for your first communion. To your children, Rachen, Christina, Omy and Enrique I know your hearts are broken and life will never be the same but know that she will watch over you always and your memories will keep her close. To my other "kids" Catherine, Christina, Jimmy, Carrie and John - I love you and will be with you in spirit. You can call me any time. It is not easy losing a sibling. Cynthia Monica - you are an angel now watching over all of us. Rest in the peace of God's arms. Love you Cousin!
