“ Have never met anyone like Mr Poulin - one only meets someone like him - just once in a lifetime. He had so much to be proud of - but never boasted. He was our very kind neighbor on 9th st - always a kind hello. Mr and Mrs Poulin welcomed my very outrageous silly brother Rocky in their home without hesitation - I know that made Rocky feel wanted and happy. Mr Poulin will be missed. Dana Daley and family

“ I met your dad at St. Mary when there was general cleaning for Christmas and Easter. He was the most faithful volunteer to always be there to clean and polish all the brass on the church doors! Sue Simmons and I could always depend on him being there for us. One more reason to be proud of your dad. May he rest in Peace. Mrs. Joan Fisher

“ I could not have asked for a more humble, faithful, kind and loving father than you. It has been a honor and a blessing to be your daughter. Love always, Suzie

“ *Once in awhile a great person comes along. Dad, that was you.
Thank you for all of the sacrifices you made for us. Rest in piece.
Love Marc*
