“ Dan and Peg have been very special friends to us for over 40 years!! They are lifelong friends! We met on a tropical vacation and have been vacationing and getting together ever since! Our children joined us on many sailing adventures and other beach activities - so our families have grown up together! A few years ago, we were lucky enough to join them on one of their a dream vacations - to the Bahamas!! Dan was always very fun loving and a devoted husband and father! We consider ourselves lucky to have known him. We will miss him terribly and expect he is already making someone laugh!! We send our sincerest sympathies to Peg, Ben, Becky and their families! Love to all from, Cami and Dave Zawacki

“ Sweetest man I will ever know. He always looked for the best in people. He taught me more than I knew at the time but now reflecting the world is a better place for having him in it. I'm saddened for losing him but his disease no longer can hurt him. I love you Dad. Thank you for giving me the privledge to be your son.

Thinking of Dan's family this morning while they bury one of the nicest, funniest, kindest men I have had the privilege of knowing. May God wrap his arms around you especially tight today and in the days to come. Sheri Treharne
