“ Doug, and family,

Doug, you and I go back a very long ways, as I grew up with you; and Bernie was my best friend.. He used to come down to my parents house, and we had a sand box underneath the deck on the swimming pool.. I struggled when Bernie got sick,, my parents didn't say much about it back then, they just said that he passed away.. The whole neighborhood got quiet.. And the good humor man (the ice cream truck driver) quit coming down our street for a week I can remember...

I want you to know that I absolutely loved your parents, so did my sister Lisa, and my wife.. You had some of the best parents one could ask for doug..

When your mom passed away, I'd see your dad walking down the street, and my wife and I would always say hi to him.. And, my wife Laurie would always ask him if he needed a ride somewhere or to the store, that she would be more than happy to take him.

My wife was such an amazing woman, as she just loved everyone.. We were married 35 years and raised 2 sons, when the lord called her home..

Doug, I'm sorry that I just found out about your dad today, theirs only 2 original people on the street left now, so the word travels alot slower today..

My sister Lisa, and I were talking earlier so when she told me, i was in shock.. I guess Laurie rotundi told her, and then she told me..

I just wanted to take a few min and write something in memory of your mom, dad, and Bernie..

God bless you and your family Doug, i hope that you get this, Or run a crossed it some day soon..

P.S. I'm still on the same street, 5 houses down from my mom's old house..
