Daniel P. Malinowski, 71, of Richmond, MI, peacefully passed away on August 5, 2023. Born on May 6, 1952, in Detroit, MI, he was the beloved son of Walter and Betty (Caress) Malinowski.

Daniel's life was marked by dedication and passion in all that he pursued. After graduating from East Detroit High School in 1970, he immediately embarked on a fulfilling career as an electrician for Local 58. Throughout his years of service, Daniel displayed unwavering commitment and a strong work ethic, earning the respect and admiration of his colleagues.

When he wasn't dedicating his time to work, Daniel found joy and relaxation on the golf course, where he would embrace the camaraderie of the sport. He also had a green thumb, spending countless hours tending to his garden and cultivating its beauty.

Some of his greatest pleasures were watching college basketball and cheering on his granddaughters during softball games.

Daniel's legacy lives on through those he leaves behind. His children, Donelle (Brian) Langtry and David (Kelly Gianotti) Malinowski, were the pride of his life and brought immense joy to his heart. Daniel took great delight in being a loving grandfather to Raegan, Emerson, Hailey, and Owen, and his time spent with them was cherished beyond measure. Additionally, he is fondly remembered by his ex-wife, Nancy Dalton, with whom he shared cherished memories. His sister, Pam Lizbinski, sister-in-law, Betty Malinowski, and his nieces, nephews, and great-nieces and nephews fondly recall the moments shared with him. He was predeceased by his brothers Ron Malinowski and Colin Malinowski.

Honoring his wishes, no formal services are planned at this time.
