“ It is with the deepest of regret that I learn of Danâ??s passing. He had many gifts, and was generous in sharing his talents with his many tenants at the Medea Building. He had a wealth of knowledge and experience in real estate, but it was his human qualities that I shall always remember. His love of his family, genuine wisdom, and sense of humor stand out the most in my memory. The City of Mt. Clemens owes him a lot for the breath of fresh air that he brought to a major part of their downtown for a good number of years. James P. Jacobs

“ Very sorry to hear of the loss of your father. He was an important part of my life and I thought about him often. He taught me a lot about so many different things. Your dad was intelligent, kind, thoughtful and very wise. He had a huge heart and easy smile. He always knew what to say for any situation; from calming an anxious tenant to making "friends" with one of the many cats that sought shelter in the basement of the Medea. He was well liked and respected by people from all walks of life. Please accept my sincere sympathy and will keep you in my prayers.

“ Jennifer - sorry to hear about your Dad. He was a pleasure to see every day when I went to the Medea Bldg. I enjoyed all the stories he used to tell about boats and boating. Almost had me talked into getting one! He also taught me a lot about real estate which was helpful to me in my field of insuring comm'l bldgs. Every so often when I talk with my Jennifer she'll ask how "Mr. Mycki" is doing! She just couldn't quite get the "Os" in there for him. : Dan always got a kick out of it when she would run into his office saying Hi Mr Mycki. His smiling face will not be forgotten.

“ My father shared a room with Daniel at Medilodge. I just want his family to know how nice he was. No matter how he was feeling, he could always give you a welcoming hello and a heartfelt good night. He will be missed there.

“ David and Jennifer... We were surprised to see Daniel's obituary in the Macomb Daily and are so very sorry for your loss. We also let his cousins Maxine Manser and Connie Morissett, and Aunt Sophie know about his passing. We send our condolences and deepest sympathies to you. May Cousin Daniel rest in peace.
