“ I am a childhood friend of David Sr. We grew up together in Detroit many years ago and were best friends. Unfortunately over time we drifted apart and have not seen each other for a long, long time. It is with a saddened heart that we are brought together for such a tragic event. There are no words for such an event and only God knows why he called Daniel home at such an early age. Our deepest sympathy for such a tragic loss but as a Christian I believe that you will be joined together once again when we are called.

“ I remember when we first met you and you helped Bill coach Nick in little league. You were so good with those boys even though they were all terrible. It spoke volumes about your character. Bill really loved working with you everyday. He always had funny stories when he came home.. We will forever remember your laughter and kindness. May you always rest in peace ♡
