“ Dear Karle Kids You are still kids to me!! I am so sorry that I was not able to attend Darlene's Funeral. I was out of town on Tuesday. She was a wonderful woman. I would point her out in our wedding album and say, "That woman had seven children". There is a Jewish tradition that the the greatest legacy parents can leave their children and grandchildren is the legacy of a good name. Darlene and Don both left you that legacy. Tina and my thoughts and prayers are with you. Al
