“ Hello all - Daron will always be my "big brother". He - and each of you - have always been and always will be so special to me. It's with heavy heart that I say I cannot make it out to say my final goodbyes but please know that my heart will be in Michigan today and always. I love you all! Shannon Okerson Cousin

“ My thoughts and prayers are with your family. I too have some funny memories with Daron! Even though it was many years ago, I can still envision in my head him and I singing "our" parts! Kristie, I'm sure you know what I'm talking about! Every time I hear the song I think of him! I hope that your memories can help you thru this very difficult time. Jaclyn Agee and family

“ Daron... I just don't know what to say here. I have been pondering it all day and I am at a loss. I hope you know how much you were loved by all, and how much it hurts to have to say goodbye too soon. You were an awesome person, who would give more than the shirt off their back, you would give everything you had. Everyone who met you thought you were great, and some of my best memories were the cookouts with Robert...so much food and such great company, and the days you would just show up with two coffees and want to just hang out and talk. You will be missed terribly...My thoughts are with your family and friends now and I wish more than anything I could be there, but know my heart is there, it is in Michigan with you and it is crying. May you be at peace and know you were loved by so many. Thoughts and Prayers with your family... Love, Nikki

“ Daron oh Daron.. you have touched so many and impacted so many lives. You were a great dad to Amber and Felisha and cared about every one first before yourself. You were also the best and most loyal friend any body would be lucky to have we miss you and love you dearly and you will forever be in our hearts

“ I’m going to miss our morning greetings – our numerous texts & calls during the day, & our nightly talks. I know how much you loved your daughters, your mom, your family & friends, and I know it’s not goodbye Mr. Daron, but more a form of hello. So hello D...hello. You’re in my heart forever. Love, Miss Julie

“ As we were on the phone when I went to check it...I said “D! All I have is my keychain light and I...um...don’t see anything in here.” And you said, “Julie, you sure? Please look all over, check in the back.” I said, “I’m sorry babe – I know this is breaking your heart. There’s a dumpster outside, it looks like the stuff in its all broke.” But – I couldn’t be as bad as you with the jokes, and I said...”aww... GOTCHA!!” I am not putting your replies to that joke here! But you told everyone that night what I did & you laughed so hard about it. I am going to miss our jokes, our talks, but mostly the times when only the other could make us see that there was a great future ahead. Your secrets will stay with me, as I promised. I just wish you had more time to see that it was all going to work out. We were always amazed that a girl and guy could be such great friends and share everything imaginable with each other – but we did.

“ Daron, We could talk for hours and never run out of things to say. You always said as soon as you walked in to my house “Finally, I can relax.” You said over and over you felt like you were always away from the busy life when you were here. No stress, no deadlines, no worries. I am so glad we could share that together. I could always ease your worries away but I told you numerous times it worked both ways. You were there for me as I was there for you. The practical joke rule we had was a riot. We would do bad and just downright funny jokes to each other. But no matter what we could only last ten minutes before we exposed it was a joke. Like when I told you I used to work for Schaeffer bread and you said “No kidding! That’s my grandparents company!” Yeah...I believed you!! But a few weeks ago when I was checking your storage unit, I got you good. This is 2 parts due to text limits

“ I am so sorry for the loss of your family member. It is such a tragedy that people have to die when God created us to live forever. God's Kingdom has many promises in the very near future and one of them is that death will be eradicated forever. Matthew 6:9,10 speaks about this Kingdom. If you have any questions, or would like to further discuss this Kingdom please feel free to contact me via e-mail, and I will be more than happy to help you. Again, I am truly sorry for your loss, and slowly but surely each day will get easier for you. Sincerely, Azuree' Baldwin azureebaldwin@yahoo.com

“ We are still in shock and disbelief. I can still picture the little boy in the "moving coat". He has and always will hold a special place in our hearts. We wish with all our hearts that we could be with you to say goodbye, but it just isn't possible. Please know that we will hold Daron, along with Felicia & Amber, Jeannie, Becky and Kristie in our hearts and prayers. We love you and pray God's comfort on each of you. Aunt Linda

“ I was so devastated to hear about Daron. My thoughts and prayers are with all of the family. I remember when I was a little girl, Daron always teased me that I was his "little girlfriend." : He also was so nice to me and to my brothers and he will always be remembered. So sorry for your loss. Love, Sara
