“ Lori, Lee, Brian - words could never express how sad I am to hear of this tragedy. God decided he needed David to do great things in Heaven now, and I am sure he will be watching over you from there. I remember as all of us cousins got older and family got together with all the children of cousins, and how much fun we had with the kids, just like when we were younger, only we joined in with the flashlight tag! David was a really good hider and when I hid with him, we were never found! As I hug my own child closer... I expect to be at the funeral Wed. In deepest sympathy, Cousin Juli Bohm
