“ Dearest Edna and the families of David Brinker, I have always enjoyed spending time together with Edna and David. I truly enjoyed being in the presence of both of them. Edna and David have a very special place in my heart and I will carry and cherish the memories of David in my heart forever. May he rest in peace and may GOD bring strength and comfort to all of you in the loss of a dear and special man, David. With love and sympathy, Denise Swartwood

“ We have shared many years as we watched our families grow up. We had fun at those bowling leagues, playing cards and visiting each others homes. Those years went by too fast and now when you just retired we wanted to do so much more. That's why we will miss you all the more.
