“ I recently heard of Dave's passing and want to send my condolences to his family. I worked with Dave, and he was a wonderful friend to me. We hadn't seen each other in years, but as it is with good friends, out of sight did not mean out of mind. I had called and texted the number that I had for him last April, but got no answer. He was always very generous with his time and talents, and I was very fortunate that he accepted baked goods in exchange for his help! He talked about his siblings often, and it was obvious how much he enjoyed and loved you all. Dave was one of a kind and I will miss my friend.

“ My heart is really heavy to hear of Dave's passing.

I met him about 10 years ago, and he was such a joy to know! He taught me how to paint, fix my water heater, winterize my home, replace sprinkler heads, install a dishwasher, clean gutters, trim trees... and the list goes on and on. He truly had a heart to help people and there was nothing that he would do!..

I recall us talking earlier in the year when he was approaching retirement---he was so excited to enjoy the planned years ahead somewhere down south. He shared such fond stories of his travels immediately after to spent time with family. It was just a few weeks ago, he and I were chatting around his decision as to where he wanted to purchase land.

To the family, I send my sincere condolences. I pray for your comfort and peace as you lay him to rest on today...

Heaven has truly gained an angel that will be missed so deeply...

“ Dave had a true servant's heart - he happily helped us move, fixed things for us, attended many of our gatherings and showed up with thoughtful and generous gifts. He was a kind and gentle soul, no doubt welcome and at home in peace and perfection.

Those of us left behind will miss him until we see him again in glory.

“ Dave was a true angel of God. Even though I knew him for brief periods when I flew up to visit from Florida, I was in awe of his gentle spirit, kindness, wit, and care. Dave expected nothing in return. He spoke of his family, and there were a lot of brothers, and sisters, with joy. May his memory be Eternal. and may he be in God's light in a place of peace, and refreshment.

“ Growing up on Glenwood Road, a few houses away from the Donna family, I have many memories of Dave. He was a prankster, for sure, and loved practical jokes. However, always positive. He seemed to want to bring out the chuckles and laughs in others to lighten their load or brighten their day. I can only imagine that these antics will continue beyond the heavenly gates.
