“ David was a character. He help us with a lot chores around our home. He seemed to be enjoying what he did as the neighborhood Mr. Fix it. Dave and I would have great conversations, even though we did not agree on much. When I learned that Dave had passed away, I was very sad. When I walk by his house I think fondly of him. He is missed.

“ I am sorry I am just hearing this. Our Cowboy Dave is gone and surely will be missed in our Oak Park neighborhood. A joy to talk to for hours, and that mind was so smart. He remembered everything and was so kind. Some may have thought he was scary from the outside, but I always told people to give him a chance, talk to him you will see he is harmless and a beautiful soul. I will especially miss him walking around our neighborhood doing his thing. Sarah Rivkah Sherman

“ I can't believe you are gone David, I'm so incredibly sad. We had so much fun growing up together, I've thought of you often over the years and your smile did light up a room and those beautiful blue eyes of yours. I love you, until we meet again 💖
