“ Its been a little over a month since the Lord called you home...its so hard big brother to know that you are not here with us...while you are in heaven watching over us just know that you are missed more than you know...thinking of you today and everyday and love you so much...your little sister Sue

“ My condolences to the family. Death is mankind's greatest enemy, when death strikes the pain and grief can seem unbearable. May you draw close to God in prayer and he will sustain you.-Psalms 55:22

“ My big brother, I am already missing you. I just can't believe you are not here anymore, but you are in all of our hearts, and have left each one of us, who's life you've touched in some way or another, many good memories that we will never forget. You loved your family more than words can express. I remember one Christmas you and Judy decorated this beautiful tree , made enough food to feed an army, and under the tree were gifts of all sizes, half way up the wall, and all the way out in the living room. You wanted all of us to have a christmas to remember like our dad did for us when we were little. You enjoyed watching the excitement on everyone's face and took lots of pictures. There are so many memories I could write a book. You were the best brother anyone could ever have and I miss you so so much! God be with you and the rest of our family and we should not morn your death...we should celebrate your life. Love you big brother, your kid sister

“ Uncle Dave was my buddy growing up i remember so many things we did together like going to the drive in movies or taking long sight seeing car trips, or the time he took me to canada to eat Chinese food. There are just to many memories to list, but we did always have a great time, i am gonna miss the old frog, but i will never forget him, ever!

“ I remember David as a young boy, along with his mom, Pauline, and his sisters who had visited our family in Zulu. He loved being around family, but as the years went by, and his mom passed away, David lost contact with so many of his cousins which bothered him in his later years. He needed to get reacquainted with all of them again, and did this by going on Facebook and starting the Thomas family group website. He learned who his cousins were and which family they came from. David wanted to learn as much as he could about who his cousins were. He was happy to interact with all of them after so many years apart. Now David is getting reacquainted with his family in Heaven now. His mother Pauline, his dad, Arthur, his brother Chester Ray, and his grandparents. We will all miss David's face on Facebook, but he is in the company of God and His angels. I will miss seeing him on Facebook, but my prayers go up to him. God bless you, David. We love you.

David Moore, was one of my best friends long ago, back when we were still in school....I still can't believe he is gone, we laughed a lot back then, and in high school, after school, spent many hours on the phone, laughing....Miss you my old friend.
