

David G. Nelson

February 25, 1957 - March 30, 2020

David G. Nelson, age 63, "Gone Fishing" March 30, 2020. He was born on February 25, 1957 in Dearborn to Pansy and Gerald Nelson. After graduating from Cody High School, he furthered his education in the field of HVAC. David retired as an HVAC technician from the GM Tech Center and afterwards kept busy working with Tradesmen International. He was an avid fisherman, especially enjoying trout fishing on the Au Sable River. Through good times and bad, David was a fan of the Detroit Red Wings. During hockey season he could be found watching Don Cherry on "Hockey Night In Canada" on Saturdays and liked going to his restaurant in Windsor when it was open.

Beloved husband of Margie. Proud father of Rick Nelson and John Nelson. Loving son of Pansy and Gerald Nelson. Dear brother of Linda Cunningham and Sharon (the late Donald) Fisher. Son-in-law of Henriette and the late Joseph Theriault. Brother-in-law of Judith (Thomas) Ranta, Dan (Sharon) Theriault, James (Mary) Theriault, Kathy (Stephen) Ladoucuer, Joseph Theriault, Jeanne (the late Thomas) Gentile, Patrick (Margie) Theriault, Timothy (Marian) Theriault, Mary Ann (William) Theriault, Kelly (Richard) Deneau, Thomas Theriault and Joanne (Raymond) Chariter. Also survived by nieces and nephews.

Due to the COVID-19 virus, there will be no public visitation. The family will plan a memorial service to honor David's life in the future. Share your

“ David, Thank you for all the wonderful times at the cabin and the times celebrating everything under the sun (birthdays, Christmas, Thanksgiving, New Year's Day, the Woodward Dream Cruise...) at home with you and Margie. I know your heavenly home is more incredible than anything we can imagine on this earth, so bask in the fullness of joy in the Lord's presence. Meanwhile, we on earth will all miss your love of life, your hospitality and your sense of humor. May the Lord's goodness fill you forever, my friend. -
