So saddened of the news of Dave. We flew together many times since 1990. He always had me laughing. I always asked him what cologne he wore and she said with a grin don't tell anyone. Stetson. When Dave had been out and was returning to flying he would call me at my office in Atlanta when I was a flight attendant manager getting advice and info on contacts. Rest In Peace dear friend. You are soaring high now. So glad our paths crossed and I got to know you.Godspeed to the family.

“ My deepest condolences to the family. I went to high school with Dave. He was two years older than me but was one of the coolest and funniest guys I ever met while going to school. We also played basketball at Ford H.S. even though we were on different teams Dave treated me with respect. Dave even visited me at my home where we played basketball on a spring Saturday morning which I have very fond memories. I haven't seen Dave since he graduated but I always asked mutual friends what he was doing. My heart breaks today knowing that I can't be there to support all his many family and friends during this very somber time. May the love of Jesus comfort you all during this very sad time. God bless, John M. Wesson (Mesa, Arizona)

I flew with David a few years back and we shared a lot of laughs. His shirts were always pressed to perfection (he gave the credit to his Mom who he obviously loved very much). He was a lot of fun and will be missed. Susan Lange

“ Our heartfelt sympathies go out to the entire Precour family. Its been such a sad time hearing of this news. We have such fond memories of Dave. He was sooo much fun at the family parties, even the "LIFE" of the party at times. We always looked forward to seeing Dave. Dave and the whole family always made us feel like part of the family. We also admired the love he displayed for his family. His family meant alot to him, even we could see that. I personally love the way Dave always looked over his mother. As a mother myself, that is what a mother can only dream of. (Don and Dan are the same way as well). We love this family and hurt right along with you. Our prayers are for you all to find much comfort in the beautiful priceless memories you shared with him. We will be praying for your healing and strength. May God lift you up, and God bless you all. All our Love and deepest condolences, The Bruzzini Family...
