“ Jeffrey, I was away for most of December and January and just found out today that your wonderful dad passed away on Nov 30th. Your dad I met about two winters ago at the chiropractor's office, where we discovered that we had a lot in common, including our religion, political ideas and that we both spent 30+ years in GM Finance. We then got together for lunch every couple of months and thoroughly enjoyed the outings. Your dad was a truly pleasant, enjoyable friend who always demonstrated his very positive and upbeat spirit. He spoke frequently about how blessed he was with such wonderful children and especially in having you so close. I miss him and hope that he is already enjoying a place in heaven. My deepest sympathies go out to you, Randy and Sharee. I am very sorry for your loss. Jack Bride, Hendersonville.

“ Randy, Sharee and Jeff.... I've known you three and your dad seemingly forever...I always regarded your dad as one of the "nice, fun dads" in the neighborhood. I don't remember a cross word ever coming from him.

I'm sure you will miss miss him. You have my sympathy at this tough time.
