“ To the family of Dawn Thompson: Please accept my sincere sympathy for the loss of your loved one. While we don't know one another, experiencing the devastation of losing a loved one is something we all face in our lives. The Bible promises a time when "death will be no more" (Rev 21:3.4) and assures us that God hears our prayers (Ps 55:22). I hope this brings you some peace during this difficult time.

“ Dear David and Buddy, You and your family are in my prayers, as I know how much you are missing your precious Dawn. When I think of her, I think of her kind and gentle spirit, her way of blessing those around her, her servant's heart and her beauty, inside and out. I saw the depth of her love for her family, and even in the midst of chronic pain and suffering, her love for the Lord. I also remember how she loved angels, and I think of her now, in the presence of both her Lord, and the angels. Her tears, pain and suffering have come to an end, and she now has peace in her eternal home.. "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His faithful servants." Psalm 116:15. Her life was a blessing to me, and I will always miss her. I pray that the peace and comfort of God will be filling your hearts today, and always. She was a beautiful example of how to live a life of love and kindness. Truly she is gone too soon for us. But it is in the Lord's timing. I know she is at peace. Your friend, Sharon Rudy

“ Dawn, I know you will not see these words but I have faith you will hear my thought as I recite them. You were a great Sister , Mother, Aunt, and friend. You will be MISSED but never FORGOTTEN. Your time here was cut short by his will, but like a butterfly you now have your wings and are truly free. I know he has great plans for you and you will be watching over us!. LOVE ALWAYS

“ I have been trying to do this all day...I feel like I am speaking directly to you because your picture is right there...And you look so beautiful and happy...I feel some relief for you, for your pain, but Dawnie I wish I could have taken 1/2 your pain and relieved you some...I truly wanted your pain to go away, but not like this Dawnie...I didn't want you to go!! Everyone keeps telling me that you are in a "Better place"...I used to use that phrase with others and they gave me a blank stare and that's how I feel now when I hear it...A "BETTER PLACE" Dawnie would be HERE with US...I know we all had lives..We worked, some of us too much and we didn't see each other a lot this past year since I started working, but it wasn't because I didn't want to...It was because I never thought this would happen Dawn...I just re-read the last text you sent to me and I must say...I LOVE YOU TOO SISTER...I will always love you, but I will never be able to see your beautiful face or hug you or smell all your beautiful scents...You were a Beautiful person inside and out...You were sick and maybe everyone didn't understand you, but you never hurt anyone...We would come over and you would hide the pain so well and I would catch you in your room resting for a few minutes...10 minutes later you'd come out and interact with your guests, family, and friends like there was nothing wrong.. You told me many times that you were coming to stay a few days and when that day came and you didn't I didn't ask because I knew you were not feeling well... You were Loving, Caring, Kind, and you were BEAUTIFUL...I wish I didn't have to use the word "were", but that was God's choice...He needed you there beside him in Heaven Dawnie...Not just anyone can go there..Pst! Put in a few good words for the rest of us...Because we will meet again someday and we will spend Eternity together...And here on this Earth we are traveling we will keep your Memories alive...LOVE YOU DAWNIE....<3 <3 <3 <3

“ My sister Dawnie was such a special person. We were so close growing up and although she was a year younger, in many ways I envied her. She was so beautiful and carefree. Nothing scared her. She loved to take risks and do stuff I wouldn't do like roller coasters and daredevil tricks on her roller skates. She was so proud of me and whenever I would come home on leave from the Air Force, she wanted to spend every minute with me. She did come visit me for Christmas and the New Year and we had so much fun! As I was going through pictures, I realized I missed out on a lot by being gone for so many years. I was soooo excited when I found out I was moving back to Michigan. We both had some medical challenges but I just thought once we are both healthier, we would be able to spend time together like when we were younger. I'm so sad and shocked that she is gone. I know she was in so much pain due to her medical conditions and at least now she isn't suffering. The selfish part of me wants more time with her.

I love you Dawnie and you will be missed. May you rest in peace.

Love your sister, Jackie
