“ Denver Dean Hitt Phillips was the last surviving cousin among the grandchildren of David Benjamin Hitt and Eudora Hitt family. She was the daughter of my great-uncle and great-aunt Tommy and Mary Hitt. She was my mother's first cousin but more nearly my age. We grew up together as playmates and friends. In her late teens Denver, that was the given name we used, moved to Fort Worth Texas to live with her Aunt Maye Hitt and find a job. I believe she worked for a photofinishing company there.

I never visited personally with Denver after that. She married and moved to Michigan where she enjoyed a full life with her husband and children. We kept up with each other through the years by frequent letter mail and telephone calls. This continued even through the COVID epidemic. I talked with her shortly before her death. Denver Dean was saved by the grace of God through the shed blood of Jesus Christ. She was the only kind of Christian there is - born again! Halleluiah! She is now in the presence of her savior Jesus, all the departed saints and the holy Angels. To you who trust in Jesus and are left here after Dean's death, do not despair. We will see her in the Father's house. I'll meet you in the morning, Cousin Denver Dean.
