“ Debbie and I both liked jewelry. I She liked to talk about how she enjoyed wearing jewelry and sparkly clothes. She loved to enjoy life. I loved her great personality and her great style. She dressed classy and carried herself the same. Her walk with Jesus was very transparent and was a witness to all of us. She has always had a great smile and was truly a wonderful person. Very kind. We will miss you.

“ Debbie was a precious friend. My favorite memories of her are working on her sewing projects and finishing each other's sentences, often with hand signs or sound effects, then laughing til we cried.

“ Over the years that I have known her, Debbie has always shown herself to be kind and thoughtful, and I always leave her company glad that we had time together. I especially enjoyed the last time I was with her, when she and Dennis shared a meal with us and our friends Chuck and Gloria Cardamone at our home. Debbie, Gloria, and I were entranced as we watched our evening primroses unfold into bloom. That was the first time she had seen that little glory, and, now that she is enjoying much greater glories, I am so grateful for the privilege of sharing that moment with her.

“ I will always have so many cherished memories of my Aunt Debbie. So many Easters, Christmas's, Birthday's and family get together's. She was always so kind and caring. I remember when I was younger and she was dating and married my uncle, I thought she was the coolest thing. I always wanted to sit next to her and talk with her. She was taken way too soon. We will all miss her so very deeply.

“ What I loved about Debbie was her childlike heart & the joy of the Lord that was so evident in her. She had such a ready sense of humor & was always happy to be a part of all the Net sisters. I loved seeing her so patiently waiting while Dennis was practicing with the band, hands always busy at work on an endless assortment of beautiful colorful costumes & her delight in telling how she found such a bargain. She was so creative & talented to re-purpose old clothes into new. Our hearts are joined with you Dennis, Justin, Sarah & Lisa in the pain of losing wife, mother & friend, yet we don't grieve as those who have no hope for we know this isn't the final end, but with the Lord, & we will see her again. May your our gracious merciful Lord bring comfort & strength to your hearts. With love, Randy & Cindy Rivington
