“ Losing a loved one is difficult. Especially the loss of one so young with so much more life to live. Sickness and death is not God's intent for humankind. It is unnatural. We can put hope in what God promises. There will be a time when no one will say "I am sick". God also promises of a time when we will be reunited with our loved ones, Isaiah 25:8 "He will swallow up death forever" John 11:25,26 Jesus said "I am the resurrection and the life". I look forward to the time when I will be reunited on an earthly paradise with my loved ones who I have lost to death. This promise has brought me comfort. May you be comforted also. With sympathy, Maria

“ Your Warm Smile will be missed, but for some of us it will live on, thru your children! You have earned your wings and can now fly like an Angel! My prayers are for your family and for those to find comfort, knowing that you will be watching them and they, can not see you, but can feel you! Rest My Angel!! When we say that prayer and ask for the good lord to have our Guardian Angel watch over us in what ever it may be, all we have do, is ask for you!! Love Ya and Miss Ya!!!!

“ My dear baby girl Debi, you were waaaay too young to leave us, but my prayer was for GOD to heal you to kick all the cancer out or if that was not HIS will, then I asked for HIS mercy. None of us wanted you to suffer, and yet each of us didn't want to lose you! Wow did you ever have amazing customers and your other family at The Flaming Grill! Unbelievably AMAZING! I will always be there for Ryan, Kiana, Gabe, and Abigail. You know a lot of people will be watching out for them all! I love you and I am missing you soooo much! Ma
